

digibet & Gextech Strike Deal Around the Fantastic League™

The Internet version of the World's Leading Virtual Fixed Odds Betting Football Game to be operated jointly by digibet and Gextech.

Leading gaming solutions provider Gextech today announced that they will team up with digibet, one of Europe's leading software and gaming operators, to jointly operate the Internet version of the Fantastic League™, a new and unique virtual football-betting product.

Gextech's adaptable virtual gaming platform allows the Fantastic League™ to be channeled not only on the Internet, but also as a TV broadcast product designed for betting shops and interactive TV.

With their groundbreaking, versatile Smart Stitch® technology, Gextech are able to reproduce the complexity of team sports and replicate betting opportunities readily available in real football matches. In addition the Fantastic League™ betting system has the ability to deliver live games seven days a week, 24 hours a day.

With unparalleled 3D graphics, the league consists of 12 different teams with one game broadcast every six minutes.

Peter Glancy Managing Director of Gextech said,

"We are excited to be working with digibet, with their extensive knowledge and experience this relationship will allow the Fantastic League™ to reach digibet's extensive European customer base."

Gunter Boyks, Director of digibet UK Ltd said,

"Fantastic League™ is a great addition to our games portfolio. I'm sure the product will appeal to our customer base and we're really looking forward to this partnership and launching in 2008."
